APPEAL OF A PLANNING COMMISSION DECISION—APPLICATION PROCESS

Appeal. The Planning Commission’s decision on a Type III decision or Type II appeal may be appealed to the City Council as follows:

1. The following have legal standing to appeal:
 - a. The applicant;
 - b. Any person who was mailed notice of the decision;
 - c. Any other person who participated in the proceeding by testifying or submitting written comments; and
 - d. The City Council, on its own motion.
2. Procedure.
 - a. A Notice of Appeal shall be filed in writing, on forms provided for the purpose by the Planning Director, within 10 days of the date the Notice of Decision was mailed.
 - b. The Notice of Appeal shall be accompanied by all required information and fees.
 - c. The appeal shall be limited to the specific issues raised during the comment period and public hearing process unless the hearings body allows additional evidence or testimony concerning any other relevant issue. The hearings body may allow additional evidence if it determines that such evidence is necessary to resolve the case. The purpose of this requirement is to limit the scope of appeals by encouraging persons to be involved in the public hearing. Only in extraordinary circumstances should new issues be considered by the hearings body on an appeal.
3. The City Council shall overturn the decision of the Planning Commission only when one or more of the following findings are made:
 - a. That the Commission did not correctly interpret the requirements of this title, the Comprehensive Plan, or other requirements of law;
 - b. That the Commission did not observe the precepts of good planning as interpreted by the Council; or
 - c. That the Commission did not adequately consider all of the information which was pertinent to the case.
4. The Council’s action on an appeal shall be governed by the same general regulations, standards, and criteria as apply to the Commission in the original consideration of the application.

Any decision of the Planning Commission may be appealed to the City Council unless otherwise specified in this Title. Such appeals will be processed using the Type III procedures unless otherwise specified in this Title. The decision of the City Council regarding a Type IV decision, appeal of a Planning Commission decision, or any other process contained within this title, is the final decision of the City.
