City of Canby Announces Canby Independence Day Celebration is BACK!

Mark your calendars, Canby Independence Day is BACK! After a two year break, due to Covid-19, the City of Canby is enthused to announce that the Canby Independence Day Celebration will return Monday, July 4, 2022!

The long-established event will return to Wait Park in downtown Canby. The event features a parade, car show, street fair full of food and beverage merchants, arts and craft retailers, family-friendly beer garden, and live music!

"I am thrilled for the return of the Canby Independence Day Celebration," noted Mayor Brian Hodson. "After what has been a challenging two years for our community, I can't think of a better way to bring people back together than at one of our most cherished events. I am sure we will have a record turnout and I look forward to seeing everyone there".

There are many great Canby organizations that help bring more elements to the event. This includes Canby Historical Society's Pancake Breakfast, Friends of the Library's Book Sale, Boy Scout Troop 505's Kiddie Korner and the Canby Fire District's Obstacle Course.

In 2019, when the event was last held, there were approximately 12,000 in attendance and the City looks forward to having an even greater showing in 2022!

There are many great opportunities to get involved: become a vendor, enter into the Car Show, participate in the parade, or if you would like to be part of the volunteer team who helps bring this event to fruition please contact Tyler Nizer at NizerT@CanbyOregon.gov. The City will hold a kickoff meeting to plan for this great event Wednesday April 6, 2022 at 10am. The meeting will take place in the Mt Hood Room at City Hall (222 NE 2nd Avenue, 2nd Floor). For additional information don't hesitate to reach out.
